BRITISH BOMBERS BAST HAMBURG REPORT

"We Can Take It!"

This young Londoner, Freddie Harrison, aged six, is annoyed at the German air raids, as who wouldn't be? They have not, however, as his defiant expression shows, "got him down." Not a bit of it. Like the other millions of Londoners, whose peaceful routines have been disrupted, he is just getting madder and madder. With him is his little sister, not very cheerful, perhaps, of mind, as what child would be whose mother has just been taken injured to hospital? When a bomb struck a house nearby a shower of bricks and rubble hurtled down on their head. Freddie played a young hero's part, for, with the house collapsed, he saved himself by jumping over the side, and with the help of another baby sister. Standing there with arms crossed he uplifts the spirit of London—and of all England—"We can take it!"

Wide Powers Contained In 8 Government Bills: Moratorium Proposed

Far-reaching powers are included in a group of eight bills dealing with moratorium, harvesting and debt adjustment questions, introduced into the legislature Thursday by Hon. Lucien Maynard, K.C., minister of municipal affairs. This legislation is considered to be the chief governmental program for the session and is among the most important drafted by the government in recent years.

F.D.R. SPEAKS TOMORROW ON AID PROGRAM

Questions Are Parried By President At Press Conference

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(AP)—President Roosevelt will make a radio address tomorrow night on defense and aid to nations battling aggressors. He will speak at 10:30 p.m. E.D.T. (7:30 p.m. M.S.T.) for 30 minutes at an annual dinner given him by the White House. Correspondents Association and his address will be broadcast.

The President asked reporters at his press conference for permission to reject the address into the program for the dinner and was assured he might do so.

REMAINS INDEFINITE

On the questions of the specific nature of war supplies that have been sent to Britain, Mr. Roosevelt chose to remain indefinite.

NORTH CITIES GET BRUNT OF NIGHT ATTACK

New Night Record Is Set When 11 German Planes Shot Down

By Ned Russell.

LONDON, March 14.—(BUP)—German planes, hundreds strong, bombed the Liverpool, Glasgow and other coastal areas in almost unprecedented fury during the night, striking at ports, shipbuilding centres and food distribution points in reinforcement of the spring blitzkrieg submarine campaign.

British, new night fighter planes made themselves a new record by shooting at least eight of the German bombers.

One more was shot down by anti-aircraft guns and two were destroyed by unspecified means, for a total one-night record of 11.

It was the second straight night of bombing for Liverpool. Glasgow's raid, and that on the Clyde-side generally, was the heaviest of the war and the first real attack since the night of Dec. 29-30.

An important northeast coast suffered its first raid of this intensity of the war.

High command reported that the German high command had issued special orders to squadron commanders to concentrate on food industries, food warehouses and public utilities.

14 Fascist Planes Shot Down By R.A.F. In Albanian Fighting

ATHENS, Greece, March 14.—(AP)—Royal Air Force headquarters announced today 14 Italian fighter planes were shot down and a number badly damaged yesterday in a battle over the Klisura-Tepeleni sector of Albania without the loss of a single British plane.

Greek dispatches declared five Italian fighters had been shot down in Italian offensives launched in the last seven days in response to Mussolini's reported adjustment to his officers to "do something."

A furious Italian assault over a wide front in the central sector about Tepeleni was completely beaten back, the Greeks said, and great losses were suffered.

Greek dispatches from the front said Mussolini would require to Rome from his vital to the front, emphasizing and "covered with honor" after failure of offensive he had personally ordered.

Mussolini was said in these dispatches to have been in Tirana, Albanian capital, since yesterday and was expected to leave for Greece.

Failure To Help Carry Out Government Labor Policies Hurts War Effort Says King

OTTAWA, March 14.—(CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King told a delegation from the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada today anyone, including ministers of the government, who fails to do his utmost to ensure carrying out of the government's labor policies is "not helping the government in its war effort."

Mr. King and 12 members of his cabinet met the group of more than 50 delegates headed by President Frank Moore, who read a long memorandum setting forth policies and grievances of the Congress.

Some government labor policies may not have been aided by fully, said the Prime Minister, but labor must realize that the government has great industrial experience with which to contend.

NEED SOME LATITUDE

In connection with the war effort, he said, the government had secured the services of some men with great industrial experience who had never before been encountered with a government department and who had to be allowed a certain latitude in their desire to "carry on with the absence of government interference."

"If we try to exert pressure on the men, helping government in its war effort, we are faced with difficulties there," he said.

The government was well represented at the conference, he said.

Novice 'Comes Through' While Regular Pilot Is Unconscious

Big Airplane Is Handled Safely While Pilot Is Revived

By James A. MacLean.

RIVERS, Mass., March 14.—(BUP)—His pilot unconscious, and the engine's motor guttering through lack of gas, Flying Officer J. J. Mills of English, yesterday took control of a big Avro Anson twin-engine trainer plane in mid-air yesterday and flew it for 20 minutes until the pilot recovered.

With only radio instructions, and a brief course in light plane flying, Mills calmly guided the plane to the Toronto Flying Club to guide him. Mills calmly stepped into the plane and when the aviator took it, Mills flew only 25 hours, training as an observer in military craft, of foreign descent.

Today's War Moves

By J. W. T. MASON.

British Prime Minister Winston Churchill today said that the British government was "not helping the government in its war effort."

INTENSIFICATION OF German air attacks on British cities is now in its longest night period of duration and must soon be moderated.

At present there are approximately 12 hours between sunrise and sunset in the British Isles, but darkness will shortly begin to divide, until it reaches a summer maximum of scarcely more than five hours.

The bad flying weather of the winter is disappearing and the next few weeks will be the last of comparatively long nights and short days.

Thereafter, lengthy visitations in Britain of the German fliers should be marked decline.

There is good reason for believing the official statements that the present attacks do not cause material destruction of essential war factories nor interfere seriously with productive capacity. The bombings take place in darkness when targets are obscure and both explosive and fire shells have to be dropped at long range.

The Germans are showing no desire to engage in large scale daylight attacks. The heavy casualties they suffered during the summer's offensive against the British have carried home their lesson.

It is improbable that there will be any more of the sort.

Heaviest Attack Of War Is Carried Out On German Targets

Great Fires Reported In Hamburg Area and Shores Of Elbe River—Shipbuilding and Dockyards Are Attacked

By Sidney J. Williams.

LONDON, March 14.—(BUP)—Royal Air Force planes made their greatest attack of the war during the night on Hamburg, most-bombed of German cities, and attacked targets in other areas of Germany, Holland and the North Sea, the air ministry said today.

Great fires were reported burning in the Hamburg area and along the shores of the Elbe river at its mouth. Bremen and Emden were attacked, oil storage plants were bombed at Rotterdam, two Netherlands airmen were bombed, a coastal command plane torpedoed and sank a German supply ship and other supply ships were bombed and machine gunned.

Ships, buildings, docks and warehouses were attacked at Hamburg, the air ministry said.

"Many heavy losses were inflicted on shipbuilding and dockyards and warehouses," the ministry said. "The damage done to these objectives, already severely bombed 24 hours before, must have been considerable."

It was the third bombing of Hamburg and the second in succeeding days.

STORM BREWS IN EAST OVER WHEAT POLICY

Eastern Reaction Is That Public Funds Used To Aid West

By N. T. Richardson.

OTTAWA, March 14.—A storm is brewing in Eastern Canada over the new wheat policy, unless the usual weather signs are met, the new policy may be as the best that can be done.

As far as lobby opinion among Western farmers, the new policy would be a disaster. The line of reaction in Eastern Canada, especially Ontario, shows that the chief burden of the new policy will be on the farmer, who will be asked to accept a public policy to enable the government to keep the price of wheat at a level which will enable the farmer to make a profit.

Western farmers are calculating how much the new policy means. They are not sure that the government will not get a higher price as advertised in its public legislation, but the new policy will mean a loss of 15 to 20 cents a bushel for the farmer, who will be asked to accept a public policy to enable the government to keep the price of wheat at a level which will enable the farmer to make a profit.

Camp of Cardinals Flooded With Good Looking Rookies

By GUY TALBOT

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals admits he has more good-looking young players than he knows what to do with for the time being. "And it's a comfortable sort of problem to have," he adds.

The Cards, after a disastrous start, came like the wind in the second half of the 1940 National League campaign under Southworth's leadership. This year if a couple of their rookies pitchers come through they should give the champion Cincinnati Reds a genuine battle.

"As I see it, we're going to be in a three-cornered race with Cincinnati and Brooklyn, and I have a feeling Jimmy Wilson will win the Chicago Cubs in a contest," Southworth said.

I had an infield problem when we started training, but it all straightened out now. Jimmie Brown, from San Diego, took over third base. Jimmy Martin is set at short and Jimmy Brown will make us stronger at second. Johnny Mize, of course, will take over first when his hold-out is settled, but in the meantime I'm using Don Padgett there.

Boss Shaugher will continue to pitch field and Terry Moore in center. With New Kor and Harry Walker fighting it out in left, Walker has hit .332 for Cincinnati last year looks very good. Probably I'll use him and New to give Moore an occasional rest in center.

"We have the nucleus of a good pitching staff in Louie Wagner, Mort Cooper, Clyde Sison and Max Lanier. And two of the youngsters look great—Budd Kisti and Ernie White."

THE QUESTION
Do you think Canada could be a great power?

THE ANSWERS
DOT McLENNAN, secretary: I think the one woman in the House of Commons is sufficient. If we wanted more we could have them.

ABDIE BURNELL, photographer: I think that if a man is educated in history, economics and political science, he is strong enough to answer the question.

JACK BLACKWOOD, warhorse: I think that if a man is educated in history, economics and political science, he is strong enough to answer the question.

High Taxation Stops City Housing Program League Group Is Told

Edmonton would develop into a "chick town" unless property taxes were lowered, Ex-Ald. Rice Sheppard declared during a discussion of taxes and housing at a meeting of the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues in the Civic Block Thursday.

Mr. Sheppard claimed present high taxation was killing the incentive to build and that an adequate housing program could not be launched until property taxes were reduced.

He said that the city council had been told that the city could not afford to build more houses because of the high taxes.

RESERVE FUNDS
Mr. Sheppard described as "ridiculous" the city council's decision to raise taxes to $1.00 per $100 of assessed value.

He said that the city council had been told that the city could not afford to build more houses because of the high taxes.

Vigorous appeal by President J. J. Hodgkinson at Thursday's meeting of the Federation of Community Leagues failed to rouse anything more than conflicting opinions on the proposed community support of a drive in aid of the "Queen's Canadian Fund" for air raid victims in the United Kingdom.

Members almost unanimously turned down the proposal on the grounds that with the people of Canada contributing to special funds for other decorations in addition to Ex-Aid. Rice Sheppard declared that he was not ungrateful in taking this attitude, rather he was glad that people are already giving as much as they can.

John Johnson told the members that "this thing may be too big for the federation, but it's not too big for me—I shall make an effort."

ARMED FORCES BUT CARRIES ON

OTTAWA, March 14 — (CP)—Questions affecting the armed forces were prominent in a memorandum presented to the House of Commons by the Minister of the Trades and Labour Congress of Canada.

The minister urged:

Free transportation at regular intervals to all enlisted men while on duty, and to their families, thereby removing the risks that many are forced to take in making long-distance commutes to their installation, reallocated in accident or death.

On information laid by the provincial department of labor. A fine of $100 was ordered, but the woman offered to pay $30.30 back was ordered.

Appeal was taken on several grounds, but the judgment of Judge Crawford was based on the submission by S. Bruce Smith, who said that under the Home Measures legislation all disputes relative to wages paid on such contracts should be referred to arbitration. The court held that in view of this legislation the Appeal in Industrial Disputes Act did not apply insofar as it purported to affect Dominion government contracts.

That's what happened to the young woman whose story of denial was disbelieved by the magistrate.

For her that cost just three cents.

That's what happened to the young woman whose story of denial later disabbed by the magistrate. She had been charged with shoplifting three pairs of hose costing 50 cents a pair.

A saleslady in the store testified against her. "I saw her take them," she testified.

"I'll never do it again," when she was apprehended handling the merchandise, she pleaded.

In default of paying the fine the woman must spend 20 days in jail.

New Spring Coats

They've been arriving now for some time—each shipment something to rave about! There are the beautifully non-lustrous tweeds—many from British mills—in gorgeous colors. There are softly molded dressmaker styles with crisp white touches—signs of military influence—navy and black wool crepes and boucles. Fitted, swagger and reofer styles. Some of the tweeds have flannelette interlinings and chamois (sheep-skin) for really blustery days! Sizes 14 to 44.
EACH $19.75
—Main, Second Floor

Hats Are Flatterers!

... You'll look your prettiest every time you don your new Spring hat! Take a part sailor, for instance—dipping gracefully over your brows! One of the adorable new bonnets—our “Pompadour” model that reveals your smart new hair-do! Grand array of smooth and rough straws (trade name)—in a positive flurry of flowers and ribbons—and literally yards and yards of velvet! Navy and black with white—soft pastels—lots of beige and brown. And don't forget your favorite fur felts—classics in wear with suits!
EACH $2.98 to $10.00
—Milliners, Second Floor
